Primaries in 5 States, Focus on Nixon Race

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Five states hold primary elections today to determine party nominees for state and national offices. Most of the attention centers on California where former Vice President Richard M. Nixon is bidding for the Republican gubernatorial nomination.

In addition to California, primaries are being held in South Dakota, Idaho, Montana and Mississippi. The Connecticut state Republican Convention also nominates its gubernatorial and senatorial candidates today.

In a tight turnout Monday, Republican voters in Iowa nominated Gov. Norman Erbe for a second term and Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper for a fourth term. Neither race was close.

Iowa Democrats chose Harold E. Hughes, State Commerce Commission chairman, to oppose Erbe in November. E.B. Smith, Iowa State University professor, was unopposed for the job of contesting Hickenlooper.

Nixon won in his home state of California even while losing the 1960 presidential election. He is favored to win today.

But State Rep. Joseph Shell, a staunch conservative, claimed Monday night he would win, and observers believe he has picked up ground with a hard-hitting campaign in recent weeks.

Shell has questioned whether Nixon can carry the Republicans to victory in November over Gov. Edmund G. Brown, who is expected to win a second-term nomination without trouble.

Almost from the September day that Nixon announced his candidacy for the governorship, the militantly conservative John Birch Society has been an issue in the campaign. Nixon has said the GOP ticket has no place for candidates who seek or accept society support. Shell, an independent oilman, says he neither sought nor rejected Birch Society support.

Two Republican California congressmen who have stated they are Birch Society members—John Rousselot and Edgar Hiestand—face primary opposition.

The Connecticut Republican convention opened with a plea for party harmony by state chairman A. Searle Pinney, but the GOP faced the possibility of its first statewide primary race.

It takes a majority of the 60 delegates to win the nomination, but if a loser polls 20 per cent, he can demand a primary. Both John Alsop, former insurance company president, and Edwin H. May Jr., former state Republican chairman, appear certain to have at least 20 per cent of the votes for the gubernatorial nomination. Four others also seek the nod.

Former Gov. John Lodge, Rep. Torace Seely-Brown, and Vivian Kellems, the industrialist who has engaged the federal government in several tax battles, seek the nomination to succeed Republican Sen. Prescott Bush, who recently announced he will retire. Lodge is favored.

Mississippi's House delegation was cut from six to five as a result of the 1960 census. South Dakota Republicans are expected to nominate Sen. Francis Case for a third term over State Atty. Gen. A. C. Miller. Food for Peace Director George McGovern is unopposed for the Democratic nomination.

Big issue in the Idaho primary is gambling. Boise attorney Vernon K. Smith favors legalized gambling while his five opponents for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination are against it. Gov. Robert Smylie is expected to win the Republican nod for a third term over two opponents.

Sen. Frank Church is unopposed for Idaho's Democratic senatorial nomination. Two conservatives, George V. Hansen and John T. Hawley, seek the Republican nomination.

The Montana primary includes battles for nominations to oppose incumbent Reps. Arnold Olsen, a Democrat, and James F. Battin, a Republican.

GOP Candidate in Georgia Killed

WOODBURY, Ga. (AP)—A. Edward Smith, Republican candidate for governor of Georgia, was killed today in an automobile-truck crash.

Smith's wife was injured. She suffered a possible skull fracture and was taken to St. Francis Hospital in Columbus.

The state patrol reported Smith's car crashed head on into a truck owned by the Neal Trucking Lines of Montgomery, Ala. The driver of the truck, Paul Boggs, was not seriously injured.

Smith's body was taken to his home in Columbus.

The patrol report said Smith's car crossed the center line and crashed with the truck shortly after midnight on Georgia 85.

The 60-year-old Republican candidate was dead on arrival at the Meriwether Hospital in Warm Springs.

Mrs. Smith's condition was listed as satisfactory.

Rail Dispute Seems to Be About Settled

CHICAGO (AP)—A final settlement in the wage dispute between the nation's railroads and 450,000 non-operating workers appeared near today after the carriers had agreed to raise hourly wages an average of 10.2 cents.

A railroad spokesman said the 11 unions representing the off-train workers had indicated their acceptance of the wage increase, which had been recommended by a presidential fact-finding board last May 3.

But he said there was a lack of a definite understanding among the brotherhoods as to how the increase would be figured.

Union and management leaders planned to arrange another session today in an attempt to resolve the issues holding up final settlement.

Both sides announced Monday acceptance of a flat 4 cents an hour increase, retroactive to last Feb. 1, and a 2 1/2 per cent raise effective last May 1 for the telegraphers, clerks, shipmen, and other non-operating personnel.

Union leaders canceled a session Monday night with the carriers pending further study of one of the issues yet to be resolved—the application of the 2 1/2 per cent portion of the emergency board's report.

Wages in the non-operating jobs currently average $2.42 hourly.

James E. Wolfe, spokesman for the railroads, said the increase actually would amount to 10.28 cents an hour and would cost the railroad industry $105 million annually.

Showers in State Help Farm Crops

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Scattered showers on six straight days have greatly improved farm production prospects, the Crop Reporting Service said today.

In the first optimistic crop report in a month, the service said planting of soybeans, corn and sorghums has resumed, seed planted in dust will come to life, and growing crops and pastures will develop rapidly.

Cotton conditions should improve though some replanting will be necessary because of washing rains, the CRS said.

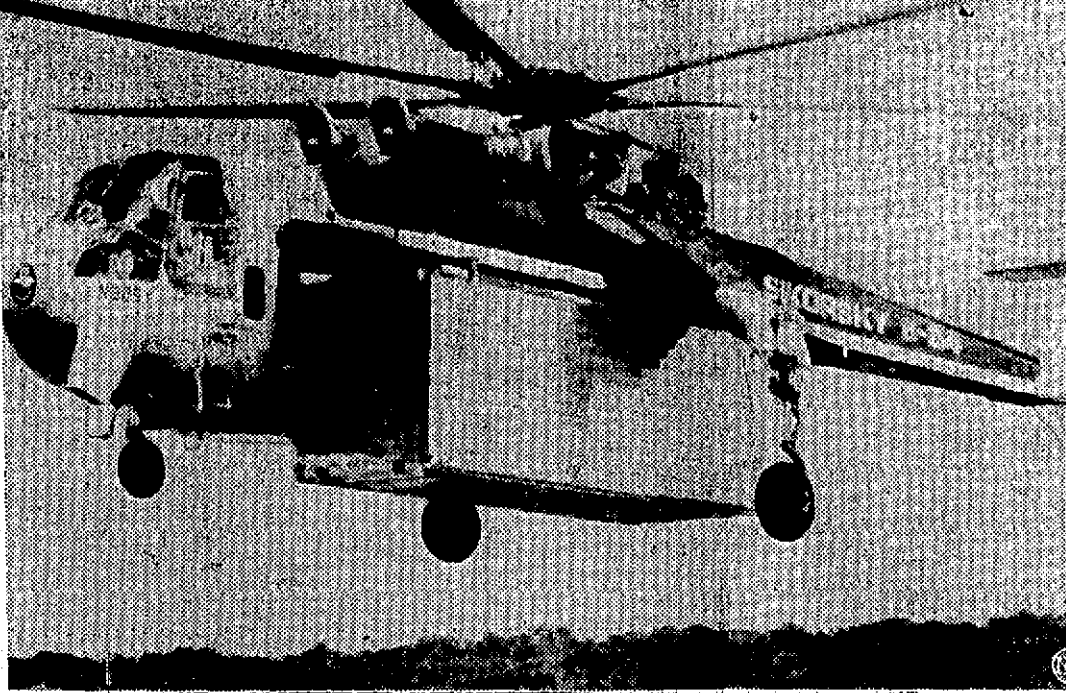

The outlook for fruit and vegetables brightened. The increased soil moisture should aid sizing of the fruit and cause rapid development of growing vegetables. A few early peaches are being harvested in southwest Arkansas.

Prospects for apples and grapes is still good. Tomatoes in the Bradley County area are in excellent condition, but only fair in other areas. Bradley County's harvest is expected to start next week.

Rice seed germination is creating problems and stands are below average in some fields, but generally rice is in good condition. Many farmers obtained stands by pumping water into drying fields. Earlier rice is being drained for the first time.

Restoration Meet at Washington

George W. Peck, president of Pioneer Washington Restoration Foundation, has called an open meeting for 7:30 tonight at Washington, Mrs. Charles A. Haynes, executive secretary, has mailed notices to Washington citizens and extends an invitation to Hope and Hempstead residents interested in the progress of the Foundation's program.

McClellan's Book Tells About Probes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., said today he is revising the last two chapters of a book he has written, designed to give readers a chairman's eye view of Senate investigations of corrupt dealings.

The book will be published by Meredith Press in October, McClellan said, under the title "Crime Without Punishment."

He told a reporter the title is descriptive of one of the disturbing things he learned as chairman of the old Senate Rackels Committee and as chairman also of the Senate Investigations Subcommittee—that all crimes aren't punishable by law.

He said his hearings have uncovered "many, many things that are reprehensible and should be punished, but are not crimes forbidden by statute."

"I have tried to tell a story that would somewhat place the reader in the chairman's seat, and get the same insight that came to me during these various hearings," McClellan said.

Burglars Hit Patmos Store

Luther Rider's Store at Patmos was entered through a rear door last night and the burglar took from $20 to $28 in cash and cigarettes, it was reported by Sheriff Jimmie Griffin. Assisting in the investigation is State Police Lt. Senab Mosier.

Union Vote at Marianna Plant

MARIANNA, Ark. (AP) — Employees of the Douglas and Lomax Manufacturing Co., will vote June 14 on whether to affiliate with the United Auto Workers union.

Employees at the plant voted 111-28 against affiliation with UAW last summer.

The plant makes automobile seat frames.

Special Census at Blytheville

BLYTHEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Blytheville will conduct a special census so persons in a newly annexed area can be figured into the state turnback formula, Mayor Jimmie Edwards said Monday.

Blytheville's 1960 population was 20,797. An estimated 4,000 persons live in the annexed area.

Edwards said the city council will allocate funds for the census at its June 12 meeting. Additional state turnback money will be about $8 a person.

The city has until Dec. 31 to complete the census and get the higher population into the 1963 turnback formula.

State Colleges Receive $3,000

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Foundation of Associated Colleges announced Monday a $3,000 gift from Olin Mathieson Chemical Corp. Officials said the money would go toward summer studies by faculty members of the seven affiliated colleges.

City Zoning Ordinance Is Passed

Hope's Board of Directors last night passed a zoning ordinance which set up rules and regulations governing any construction in the city in the future.

The Planning Commission has worked for months on the project. The ordinance sharply restricts certain types of construction in certain sections of the city, designates residential, industrial areas and other regulations.

Future construction will come under the authority of the ordinance.

In other action the board discussed the Parks and Recreation program at length and increased the auto expenses for Director Charles Gough.

Robert LaGrone was named to a 10 year term and Roy Anderson and eight year term to the Water and Light Commission. In future all appointments to the Commission will be for a 10 year term. Both men were re-appointments.

The group approved a paving project on High Street between First and Third with property owners paying the rate of 75 cents per foot.

Income Tax Cut Next Year, Dillion Thinks

NEW YORK (AP) — Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon says the administration will propose a top-to-bottom reduction in income tax rates for enactment by Congress next year.

He told the New York Financial Writers Association at a dinner Monday night that the proposal will be part of "a fundamental restructuring of our income tax system, designed to promote the maximum long-term economic growth."

The cuts would be coupled with revenue-raising proposals to offset the resulting loss of government revenue "in whole or in part," Dillon said.

He said no decision has been made on how far to go in offsetting the lower tax rates by broadening the base of the tax structure and closing loopholes.

Dillon's statement was viewed as the most forceful declaration to date of the administration's tax plans for next year.

The tax plans of which he spoke would be part of the income tax reform bill the administration long has planned to hand Congress before it adjourns, with an eye towards legislative action early next year.

Dillon said he welcomes growing talk of a tax cut but not as "a hasty, ill-considered reaction to the gyrations of the stock market."

He spoke of the dramatic price drop of May 28 as one in which "all vestiges of reason were temporarily pushed aside, and panic took control of the great New York Stock Exchange."

Dillon said he sees no economic factors underlying the market's performance. Rather, he said, the slump reflects a realization that inflation has been brought under control.

During 1961, he said, investors

Vaccinations for Bang's in June, July

Farmers of Hempstead county will have an opportunity to have their calves vaccinated against Bang's disease during the month of June and July.

Notices have been mailed from the county Extension office to those who are on the mailing list. Those who do not receive one of these notices through the mail should either call the county agent's office or mail in the number of calves that need to be vaccinated.

Calfood vaccination against Bang's is one of the best methods of keeping cattle herds of Hempstead free of costly Bang's disease. Cattlemen of Hempstead county have already tested their cattle and the county is now on a modified-certified Bang's Free rating for the county. Every cattle owner in Hempstead county should take advantage of this program said the county agent Calvin J. Caldwell.

The proper ages for vaccinating heifer calves against Bang's is from 4 to 8 months of age. All requests for vaccination should be in the county agent's office not later than June 14.

Petitions for CD Amendment

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Circulation of petitions to get a Civil Defense constitutional amendment on the November ballot started Monday under sponsorship of the Arkansas Association of Civil Defense Directors.

Mayor Lynn Chivers of Clarendon, association president, said the amendment will permit the legislature to enact laws to insure continuity of state government operation in the event of enemy attack.

Chivers said blank petitions would be sent to all Civil Defense directors in the state.

The group must collect 41,000 signatures by July 5 to get the proposal on the ballot.

Common Group Slams Tariffs on U. S. Goods

By ALFRED CHEVAL

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—The European Common Market will increase duties as much as 100 per cent on five classes of American products July 17 in retaliation for similar U.S. tariff boosts on carpets and sheet glass.

The six-nation Common Market's Council of Ministers approved the unprecedented tariff boosts Monday at the request of Belgium, which charged that the U.S. duty increases threaten industries in Belgium that involve 6,000 workers and $26 million a year.

The Common Market action will double to about 40 per cent of their value the duties on American-produced polyester, polyethylene, artificial and synthetic textiles and raise from 16 to 19 per cent the duties on American varnishes and water colors.

Officials said U.S. exports of those products to Common Market nations—France, Belgium, West Germany, Luxembourg, The Netherlands and Italy—total $27 million yearly. They said the difference in duty would total $5 million a year.

Under the rules of the General Agreement on Tariff and Trade, the Common Market duties go into effect a month after the new U.S. tariff increases become effective June 17.

The new U.S. tariff rates will boost duties on wilton and velvet or tapestry carpet imports from 21 to 40 per cent. The increased duties on cylinder, crown and sheet glass will range from 1.3 cents to 3.5 cents. Belgium is the leading source of U.S. imports of wilton and velvet carpet and sheet glass.

President Kennedy announced last March that he was reluctantly ordering the increases because the U.S. carpet and glass industries had been hard hit by unemployment. Kennedy said that Belgium's level and that Belgium enjoyed a favorable balance of payments while the United States was losing gold.

Belgium charged that Washington had violated rules of the general agreement by announcing the increases without prior consultation. Common Market officials argued were angered by what they called the incompatibility between the tariff boosts and Kennedy's congressional appeal for a liberal U.S. trade policy.

Portugal meanwhile applied for membership in the Common Market.

Rally Makes Up Sharp Market Losses Early

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market rallied in heavy trading this afternoon, overcoming an early sharp loss.

The New York Stock Exchange's ticker tape fell more than a half-hour behind transactions.

Some brokers saw the developing action as a duplication, on a smaller scale, of last week's spectacular down and up performance.

A Wall Street analyst expressed the opinion that the statement by Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon Monday night that the Kennedy administration would seek a top-to-bottom income tax reduction was a factor in the turnaround. Others, however, were not so sure what the effect of Dillon's talk would be.

The Dow Jones average of 30 industrials at noon was up 2.78 to 59.48 after having been down 5.52 an hour earlier.

However, The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon showed a drop of .90 to 218.3.

Standard & Poor's comprehensive 500-stock average at noon was up .24 at 57.51.

Trading volume spurred to 2.31 million shares in the first two hours, compared with 1.94 million in the like period Monday.

International Business Machines climbed $14 to $374 after a $25 loss Monday.

Litton Industries added $8.25 to $92. Other gains included American Telephone $2.12 to $109, Jones & Laughlin $1.50 to $48.50, Boeing $1.87 to $4.24, Polaroid $1.75 to $112.25, Du Pont $1 to $185.50 and Lorillard $112 to $44.87.

Tax-on-Tax Rapped by Lawmaker

LITTLE ROCK (AP) —Pulaski Rep. Glenn F. Walther attacked Monday what he termed those favoring continuation of a "tax on tax" in Arkansas.

Walther described as wild, a recent statement he said appeared in the Arkansas Democrat which warned that the state would lose $11 million in revenue through revision of the state income tax law.

In question was the matter of Arkansans paying state income tax on taxes paid the federal government.

"We should be allowed to deduct our federal income tax payments from our state income tax, as we did for many years, and as practically all other states do," Walther said.

He cited this example: "If a wage earner makes $80 a week, the federal government takes about $15 out of his pay envelope and he gets about $65.

"But does he pay the state of Arkansas income tax on $65?"

"He does not. He pays his state income tax on the entire $80."

Walther said that although he has not voted for a tax increase in 14 years he would vote for one in order to eliminate "an unfair and unjust tax."

Mrs. Patterson Succumbs Here at Age of 31

New Orleans Papers Sold to Newhouse

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Muel I. Newhouse has added New Orleans' only two daily newspapers to his mushrooming publishing empire. He paid more than $7 million, believed to be a record amount for a newspaper property.

Newhouse purchased control of the jointly owned newspapers Monday by receiving offers to sell 248,925 of the 280,000 outstanding shares in the Times-Picayune Publishing Co.

"These newspapers have a proud history," Newhouse said in New York.

His New York office said Newhouse's offer to buy the remaining 31,075 shares would remain open all day today. He planned to fly to New Orleans "with a check for $42 million in his pocket."

The morning Times-Picayune, which celebrated its 125th anniversary earlier this year, and the afternoon States-Item become the 17th and 18th newspapers in Newhouse's coast-to-coast publishing empire. His string of newspapers includes large dailies in St. Louis, Mo., Portland, Ore., and Birmingham, Ala., as well as several large magazines.

Two members of the American Nazi party appeared in front of the six-story Times-Picayune building to protest the sale shortly after the Newhouse announcement was made jointly in New York and New Orleans.

At the $150 per share which Newhouse offered, the purchase price for the 248,925 shares would reach $37,338,750. It would be 742 million even for the entire 280,000 shares.

The stock's highest yield in the past has been $135. It has a par value of $10.

The newspaper trade magazine Editor & Publisher said the Newhouse purchase was the biggest transaction ever reported involving newspapers alone. It was also the biggest cash deal, as opposed to stock transfers, involving newspapers together with other property, said Editor & Publisher.

The $24 million paid by Marshall Field Jr., publisher of the Chicago Sun-Times, for the Chicago Daily News in 1959, was the previous high of all newspaper cash transactions.

The two New Orleans newspapers have a combined circulation of 352,318, latest published figures show. The Sunday circulation of the Times-Picayune is 302,224.

Newhouse's New York office said he would address the staffs of the two papers, and that in line with the policy of the Newhouse group. Local control would be maintained. John P. Tims will continue as president and publisher and the present staff and management will remain.

Newhouse already owned the St. Louis Globe-Democrat; The New York Times; Star-Ledger, the Birmingham (Ala.) News and the Huntsville (Ala.) Times; the Portland Oregonian and the Portland Oregon Journal; Syracuse (N.Y.) Post-Standard; Herald-Journal and Herald-American (Sunday); Staten Island (N.Y.) Advance; Jamaica (N.Y.) Long Island Press; Long Island City (N.Y.) Star-Journal; Harrisburg (Pa.) Patriot and News and Jersey City (N.J.) Journal.

He also has an interest in the Denver (Colo.) Post and three Springfield, Mass. newspapers.

Newhouse also has majority interest in Conde Nast, which publishes Vogue, Glamour and House Garden; Street and Smith magazines including Mademoiselle; and a Paris publication called Adam.

Pair Taking Riders From Hyannis

HYANNIS, Mass. (AP)—A Negro minister and his wife were due to arrive in Hyannis today from Boston to take more reverse "freedom riders" home with them.

The Rev. and Mrs. William R. Scott already have three Negroes living with them in their Roxbury home. They hope to take several more home with them and help them find jobs.

Five of the 52 riders sent to Hyannis by southern segregationists have gone to Boston, where housing and jobs are normally easier to find.

Staying with the Scotts are Robert Gene Jackson, 25, of Miami, sent here from Macon, Ga., and William Ricks, 20, and Eugene Douglas 30, both sent from Little Rock.

"All three are working," Mrs. Scott said last night. "In fact they're so tickled to be working they all have two jobs. They're working day and night."

Mrs. Scott said a choice of two jobs awaits Fred Calvin of Little Rock, due to arrive in Boston today from Hyannis.

The Rev. Mr. Scott is minister of the Church of God in Christ in the Roxbury section of Boston.

Also living in Boston are Johnnie Watkins, 27, and his wife, Tiny, 19. They arrived in Hyannis from Shreveport, La., last month but moved in with Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Smith of Roxbury last week. Watkins has not found employment.

Mrs. Scott said her mother, Mrs. Sarah Drayton of Roxbury, has agreed to open her home to several more Negroes.

A decision may come Wednesday.

Cathcart Gets Central Post

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Jim Cathcart, 34, coach at Southwest Junior High in Little Rock, was named Monday head basketball coach at Little Rock Central High.

Cathcart is a Central graduate and former all-Southwest Conference star at the University of Arkansas. He played professional ball for five years.

He succeeds V. E. Baher who resigned last month. Cathcart is only the seventh basketball coach in Central High's history.

Cathcart's Southwest squad last year won the city title.

School officials said 12 applications were received for the job.

Mrs. Scott said a choice of two jobs awaits Fred Calvin of Little Rock, due to arrive in Boston today from Hyannis.

The Rev. Mr. Scott is minister of the Church of God in Christ in the Roxbury section of Boston.

Also living in Boston are Johnnie Watkins, 27, and his wife, Tiny, 19. They arrived in Hyannis from Shreveport, La., last month but moved in with Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Smith of Roxbury last week. Watkins has not found employment.

Mrs. Scott said her mother, Mrs. Sarah Drayton of Roxbury, has agreed to open her home to several more Negroes.

A decision may come Wednesday.

Metal Workers Go on Strike

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Local 249 of the Sheet Metals Workers, representing workers throughout Arkansas, struck Monday after failing to reach a wage agreement with the Arkansas Sheet Metal Contractors' Association.

The only large public project affected was the Greers Ferry Dam at Heber Springs. L. B. Freeman, union business agent, said all 240 union members except 78 working at Titan II missile sites and 10 at Little Rock Air Force Base are involved.

A meeting is set then between state, federal and local officials and Maj. Gen. Thomas J. Donnelly, adjutant general of Massachusetts.

Camp Edwards has many vacant facilities, being used only occasionally by the National Guard as a training site.

and speculators pushed stock prices to inflated levels in the belief that inflation was just around the corner.

He said the fact that this belief has been pretty well dispelled is the basic reason behind the decline in stock prices over the past few months.

Dillon said the economy has picked up steam and is moving ahead rapidly after a mid-winter pause. In a question-and-answer period after his speech, he said there is no reason to feel the recovery won't carry through despite the recent stock market weakness.

"The market has its effects," he said. "Certain people won't buy automobiles because of last week's weakness, but mass purchasing power is what counts and there is no indication that that was disturbed."

Dillon stressed administration efforts to improve business profits through proposals to grant a tax credit on new investments in more modern equipment. He said it plans to announce, with the next month, liberalized depreciation allowances.

Pilot May Have Tried to Halt Takeoff

By RODNEY ANGOVE

PARIS (AP)—Evidence mounted today that the pilot of the chartered jetliner that crashed with the loss of 130 lives made a desperate attempt to halt its takeoff.

The four-engine, Air France Boeing 707 jet rose only a few feet before plunging to earth, smashing through a fence and exploding into flames at Orly Airport Sunday. All 121 American passengers, including many Atlanta cultural leaders, eight crewmen and Air France's Atlanta agent were killed.

The investigation of the crash may not be completed for six months, but there were a number of indications that Capt. Roland Hoche, one of Air France's most experienced pilots, was aware of impending disaster and frantically tried to halt the huge craft.

Pierre Loiseau, a radio operator at the Orly control tower, said he saw smoke coming from the big jet's wheels, indicating that the pilot slammed on the brakes as the plane approached its normal takeoff point. Loiseau said the plane swayed from side to side as though the pilot was maneuvering in an effort to cut speed.

Skid marks on the runway indicated the pilot had his brakes on for about 500 yards.

Investigators reportedly found the plane's throttle levers in the reverse position, another indication that the pilot tried vainly to halt the jet.

Francoise Authie, 23, one of the two stewardesses who were the only survivors, said she felt the engines slow as the plane rolled down the runway.

"When the engines slowed down I knew we would not take off," she said. "I did not imagine for a moment that we were in danger. Then it happened—like that—suddenly."

She said there were several severe jolts as the plane came apart with a loud crashing noise.

Atlanta Mayor Ivan Allen Jr. reported it may be some time before identification of the 105 AL-tor at the Orly control tower, said he saw smoke coming from the big jet's wheels, indicating that the pilot slammed on the brakes as the plane approached its normal takeoff point. Loiseau said the plane swayed from side to side as though the pilot was maneuvering in an effort to cut speed.

First Chinese Refugees Have Arrived

By RICHARD CICCONE

CHICAGO (AP)—The first family of Chinese refugees admitted under President Kennedy's new emergency admission program arrived in Chicago today after a flight from Hong Kong.

The new arrivals are See Sieng, 45, his wife Yung Sue-san, and three of their four children. They have been trying to come to the United States since applying for entry in 1955.

"This is the happiest day of my life," Eng announced through an interpreter.

"I am very happy that President Kennedy issued the refugee act and gave me and my family a chance to come to America to see my father and to take care of his business."

Eng plans to assume management of a restaurant operated for many years in suburban Park Ridge by his father, Frank Jing Eng, 70. The elder Eng, critically ill in a hospital, left China in 1916 and had never seen his son until 1959 when he visited Hong Kong.

A group of relatives, including the elder Eng's second wife, Yuk-Ping, were at O'Hare International Airport to meet them. Eng and his wife do not speak English. Their children are able to speak a little.

The Eng's eldest child, 18-year-old Leng-Ching, was not allowed to accompany the family because he is suffering from tuberculosis. But the U.S. consulate general in Hong Kong gave the youth a special entry permit today, and he will fly to Chicago Wednesday.

The other children are two daughters, Mee-Har, 16, and Mee-Won, 12, and a son, Leng-Hun, 9. All of the family members plan to become American citizens.

The Eng's are among 19,000 refugees from Red China who have filed applications with the consulate general since 1954. None of the several thousand who will be admitted under the current program are from the mass of 70,000 who stormed Hong Kong's border last month, prompting Kennedy to open the gates to the United States a bit.

Justice Department officials said Eng, a former landowner in the Toishan district of China, was imprisoned by the Communists. He fled to Canton after he was released in 1953 from a work camp and later smuggled his family to Hong Kong. He worked there as a salesman.

First U. S. census report in 1790 consisted of a slim booklet of 56 pages; recent census reports required more than 130,000 pages.

that saves like a compact, yet has big-car room, ride and performance!

AND THIS IS IT!

our all-new FORD FAIRLANE

SEE AMERICA'S NEW-SIZE CAR... FIRST OF A NEW CLASS OF CARS FROM FORD!

Let's clear the air about size and savings. First of all, our Ford Fairlane's not a compact! Its wheelbase measures 7 1/2 inches longer than Rambler Classic's, 5 1/2 inches longer than Chevy II's. It's longer over-all than the whole field of compacts. Yet it's actually priced below some of them!

But don't confuse Fairlane with big cars. It's a foot shorter than a full-size Chevy, for example. Naturally, it costs a lot less than full-size cars. But that's just where your savings start! Now check the chart and see how Fairlane cuts your cost-of-driving, too!

actually, you are fighting about who should boss whom. Accept the fact that some people are born to be night owls. Actors and reporters are notorious for the late hours they keep even when not working. If you love your husband and want to remain married, see the sunrise with him and "don't nag". Once you make up your mind to make him happy, you'll get the strength to stick it out. Ten to one, when no longer on the defensive, he'll meet you half way.

Dear Helen: I am a boy of 13 with four major problems: my brother, mother, father and self. My 16-year-old brother bullies me. I'll be in the midst of a telephone conversation and he'll yell "Hey, you, come here!" For what? To fetch him a package of cigarettes which he could easily have reached for himself. He is not old enough to smoke but we try to stop him he makes life miserable for all of us. On occasion he has threatened to pulverize me, then Mom and Dad scold him but to no avail.

Every time anything goes wrong, Mom sulks, gripes and acts the disorganized adolescent. She is a physical education teacher who can control her pupils but not us.

Dad is an over-psychologist, ever reading psychoses into everything we do. He is a positive thinker—in theory, not practice. My specialty is ducking chores.

Push me too much and I'll make the pushers (Mom and Dad) wind up doing the chores themselves. My report cards are liberally sprinkled with C's, D's and F's. We need a cure—all as individuals, as a family. Have you got one? —S.

Dear S.: You talk like a Harvard undergraduate. It is a common fault to try to reform the world before reforming ourselves. Your biggest job is to get ahead with your education. Change those C's, D's and F's on your report

Star's Camera Covers Arkansas Lakes in U.S. Plane

The Grauman Black Mallard amphibian in Swaha Lodge bay at Narrows — Hope Star photos by Alex H. Washburn

The Big Foot on starboard wing as takeoff begins

Cabin interior looking toward cockpit and pilots

Last Friday, June 1, your editor rode in the fastest boat on the Narrows — 90 miles an hour. But then we said goodbye to the water and hit 160 in the air en route to Lakes Ouachita and Hamilton.

For we were on board the Grauman twin-engine Black Mallard amphibian out of Vicksburg, Miss., which is used by Corps of Engineers personnel. On this occasion Col. Warren S. Everett, district engineer, headed a party of Vicksburg men who were to discuss maintenance contracts for the Narrows. With Col Everett were Joe Roselle, chief of the real estate division; Russell Stewart, chief of the planning and reports branch; Thomas Carter, chief of the projects operations branch; and John W. Anderson, public relations officer.

As the big plane would be idle while the officials were engaged in business at the lake an invitation had been extended newspaper editors and cameramen of southwest Arkansas to make a 45-minute air tour to Hot Springs, where the plane would refuel. Because of the short notice, however, the only newspaper people on the trip were The Star's editor and Louis Graves, editor of the Nashville News, both with cameras in hand.

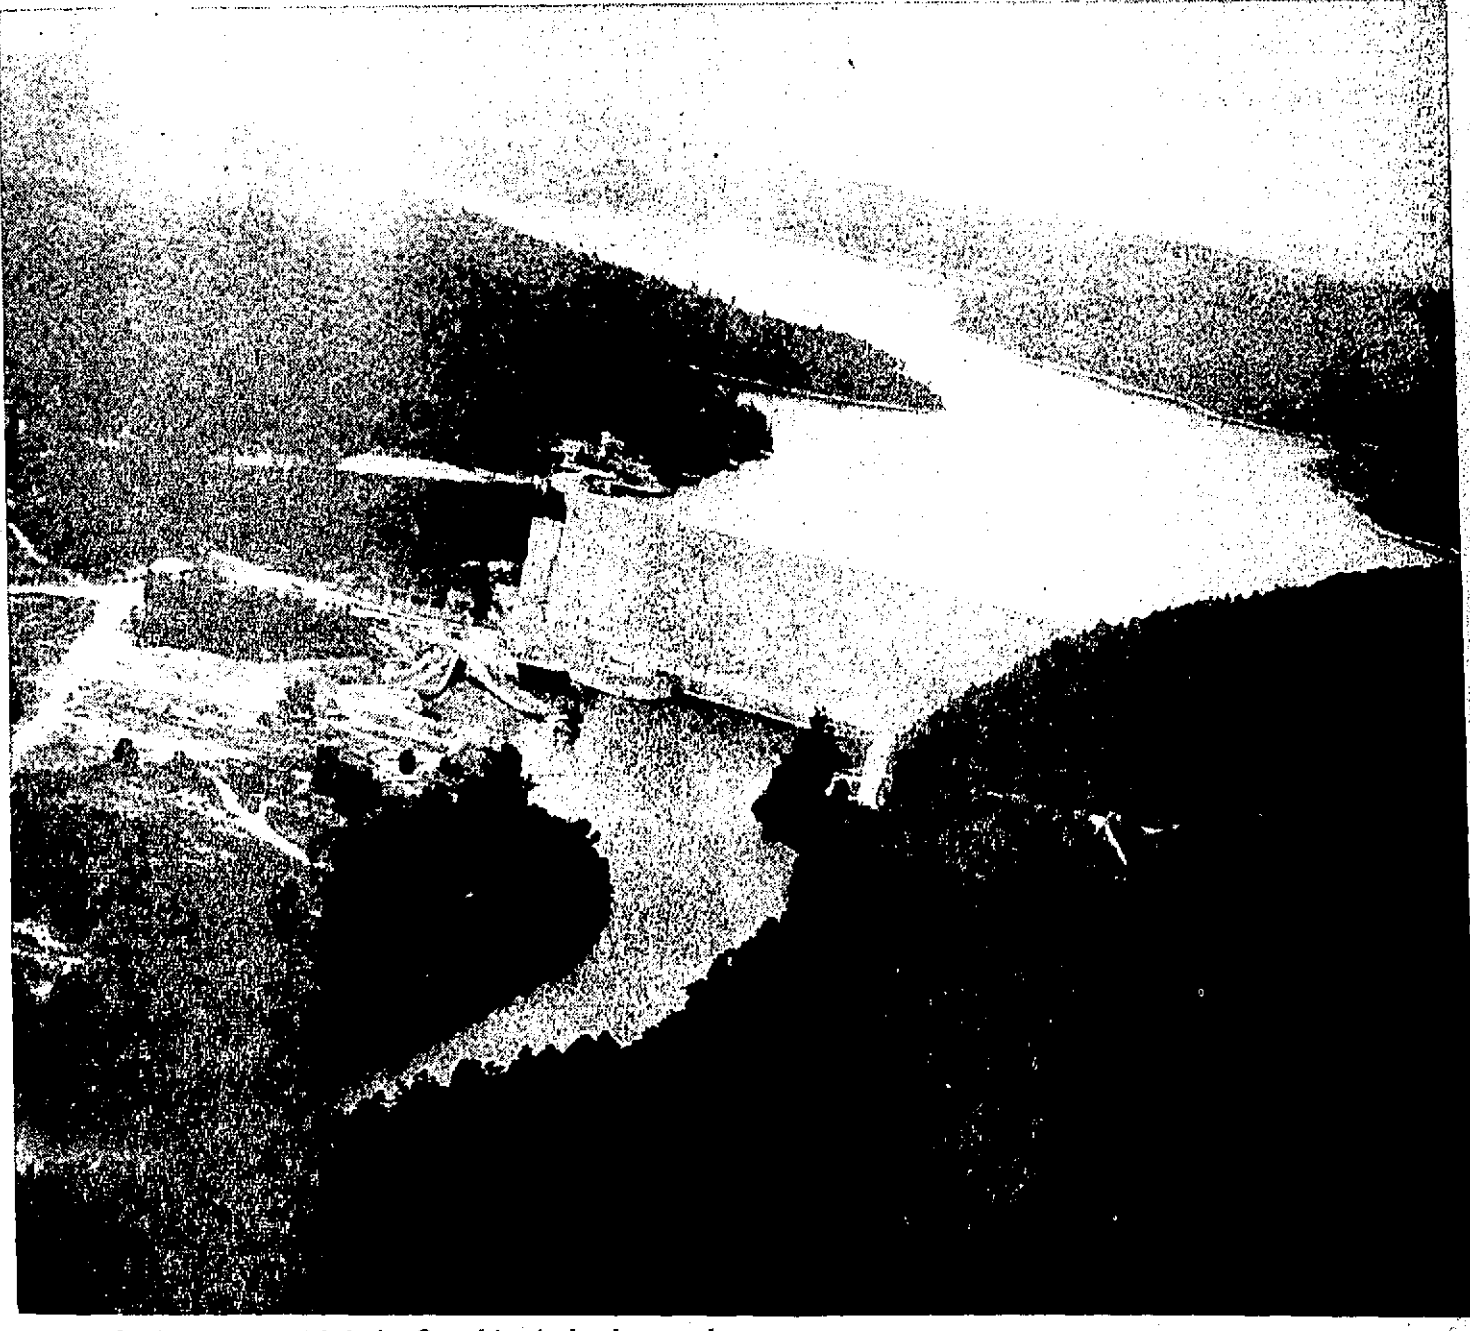

The Grauman Black Mallard, piloted by Bud Clesi, with Bob Pierce as co-pilot, is powered by two 600-horsepower Pratt & Whitney engines; and it apparently can carry 12 to 14 persons. For Grauman, world's most famous builder of amphibians, the Black Mallard was a lucky design. It was purchased 15 years ago for $119,000, and as they haven't come up with a better amphibian since then it is worth today $240,000. Many southwest Arkansans have seen this plane land during its official visits to the Narrows.

The big ship ran perhaps a mile up the main channel before taking off, climbed to about 1,000 feet, and cruised at 160 miles an hour — slowed down from normal 190 because of picture taking. We went from Daisy, at north end of the Narrows, the length of Lake Ouachita, and then put our wheels down over Lake Hamilton for the refueling stop at Hot Springs airport.

Last Friday was a bad day for pictures, but Graves and your editor both made every shot count. Before we left, Bert Rettig of Hope had said the cloud ceiling was high — and his judgment was correct, for at 1,000 feet we still had the clouds above us. But the high humidity caused a ground haze that blotted out the horizon on long shots. And driving back to Hope in the afternoon we encountered rain which developed into a storm Friday night.

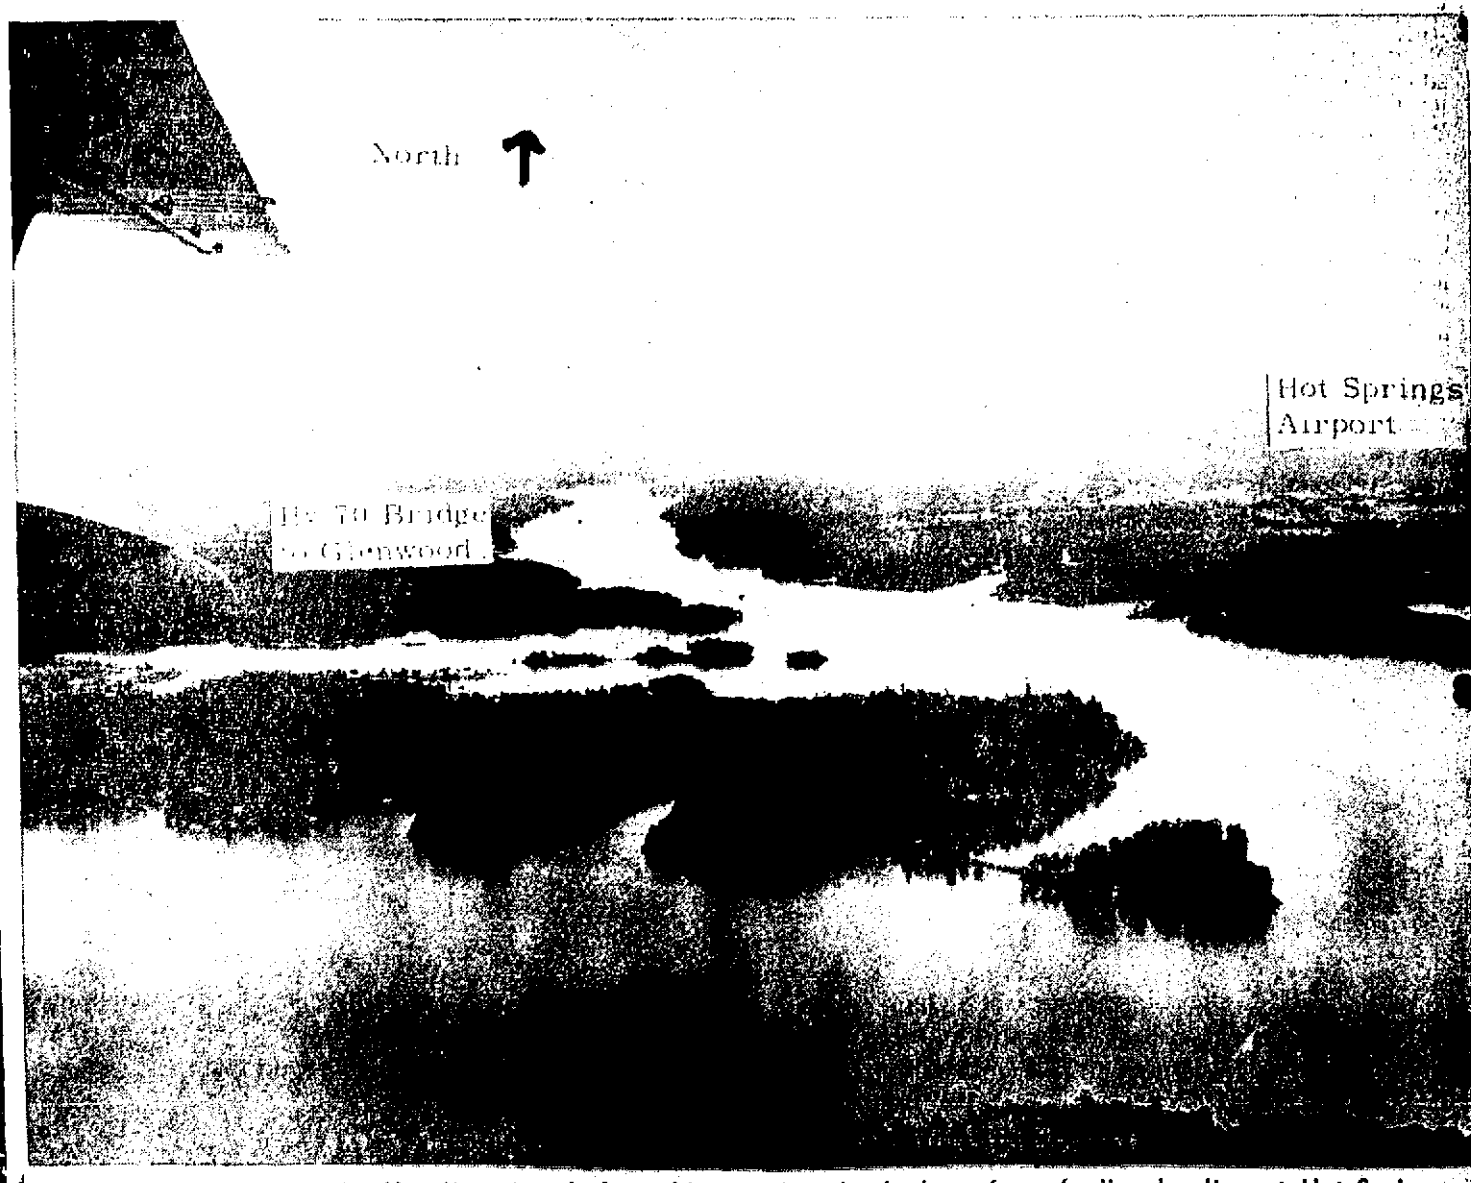

But by that time the Black Mallard and her passengers were safely home in Vicksburg — 1 hour and 10 minutes flying time from the Narrows.
